

Retail

General

In recent years, we have worked on a variety of retail projects from city centre shops to out of town retail parks.

We often work for clients with retail sites in need of refurbishment and are aware of the tight timescales required to keep trading operations functioning. We are experienced in dealing with the special structural requirements of these facilities, such as the need for flush, durable and true surfaces, correct natural lighting and structural solutions that can be rapidly installed.